

Joshua 1:1-24

1. There must be a sense of _____ with which God's people _____.
2. Joshua tweaks a _____ of his predecessor by sending _____ into Jericho.
3. The spies meet an unlikely ally named _____.
4. She has no vested _____ in the work of God and the plight of the Israelites, but _____ her own life to help God's people.
5. Don't _____ what she did to help them accomplish their _____.
6. She did not just have an open _____, but also an open _____ for God's work.
7. Her _____ redeemed her work for the benefit of God's plan. She put her _____ skills to spiritual use.
8. Notice, the spies could be in _____ with this kind of person and not _____ God's commands. (Joshua 1:7)
9. They both have what the other _____. The church must remember that others may have _____ we need, but we always have _____ they need.
10. Even relationships with people _____ the family of faith should be equally and _____ beneficial.
11. We are to _____ our end of deals made even after our needs have been met.
12. God places unlikely people in our lives to _____ us.
13. We also have the _____ and _____ to do equal good for them in return.

14. What she knew was just as important as what she did for them. It was shared _____ that saved their lives and provided _____ for their good report.

15. Rahab is blessed forever by her willingness to _____ on what she _____ . (Joshua 6:17, Matthew 1:5)